

Handwritten Arabic text in a cursive script, covering both pages of an open manuscript. The text is densely packed and includes several red-inked annotations and headings. The right page features a prominent heading in red ink: كان لعل فيكون زعمه ما ذالم يتبين في فعله او كما لم يصف. Below this, the text discusses various aspects of a subject, possibly related to medicine or philosophy, as indicated by terms like 'العلم' (knowledge) and 'الذم' (praise/censure). The left page contains similar text, with a large red circle highlighting a specific section. Marginal notes are present on both pages, providing additional commentary or examples. The paper shows signs of age, with some staining and wear.
