

Handwritten text in Arabic script, densely packed and covering most of the page. The text appears to be a technical or scientific treatise, possibly related to optics or geometry, given the context of the adjacent page. The script is in a cursive style, and the ink is dark on aged, yellowish paper.

Handwritten text in Arabic script, continuing from the left page. The text is more spread out and includes some diagrams or illustrations, though they are faint and difficult to discern. The script is consistent with the left page, suggesting a single author or a closely related work.
