

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم اللهم صل على محمد وعلم الهدى وغفر لي يا كريم

Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a preface or introductory prayer, written in a cursive style.

The central diagram is a circular floral motif. It features a central black stem that branches into eight petals. The petals are colored in alternating yellow and red, with black outlines. The entire circular design is surrounded by intricate, colorful floral and foliate patterns in red, yellow, and green. Arabic text is written in a cursive script around the perimeter of the diagram, both inside and outside a rectangular border that encloses the main illustration.

Handwritten text in Arabic script at the bottom of the page, continuing the text from the top or providing additional commentary.