

Handwritten text in Persian script, likely a manuscript or ledger, covering two pages. The text is dense and organized into columns and rows, possibly representing a list or account. The right page has a large heading at the top: "کشف خاطر مسموم کردن با جمع کل عام زور" (Revealing the heart of poisoning with the general force of the people). The text includes various names, dates, and numerical entries, such as "روز شنبه ۱۳ شهریور ۱۰۸۰" (Saturday, 13th Shahrivar, 1080). The script is a cursive style typical of historical Persian documents.
