

Handwritten marginal notes at the top right of the page, providing additional information or commentary.

Main body of handwritten text in Arabic script on the right page, containing the primary medical discourse.

Main body of handwritten text in Arabic script on the left page, continuing the medical discourse.

Handwritten marginal notes at the top left of the page, providing additional information or commentary.