

Handwritten Arabic text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript or a collection of letters. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page area. There are several lines of text that are more prominent than others, possibly indicating a specific section or a key message. The script is fluid and characteristic of the Ottoman or Mughal periods. A large, faint watermark is visible across the center of the page, reading "Copyright © King Saud University".

Handwritten Arabic text at the bottom right of the page, possibly a signature or a date. The text is written in a similar cursive style to the main body of the document. It appears to be a personal note or a closing remark.
