

Handwritten marginal notes at the top right of the right page.

Main handwritten text on the right page, enclosed in a red border. The text discusses grammatical concepts such as 'الاسم' (the name) and 'الفعل' (the verb), and their relationship to 'الاصناف' (the classes) and 'الانواع' (the types). It includes various examples and explanations of how these elements function in Arabic syntax.

Main handwritten text on the left page, enclosed in a red border. This section continues the discussion from the right page, focusing on the classification of 'الاسم' (the name) and 'الفعل' (the verb) into different 'اصناف' (classes) and 'انواع' (types). It provides detailed examples and explains the grammatical rules governing their usage.

Handwritten marginal notes on the left page, providing additional commentary or examples related to the main text.

Large watermark text 'Copyright © King Saud University' spanning across the bottom of both pages.